CONTENTS

THE leading section (pp. 1–354) of this Index contains the references to the topics in all the departments of the REVIEW except in that part given over to the criticism of books. These bibliographical items occupy the second section and are indexed by author's name and title of volume (pp. 354–479). The third division gives in the same way the references to the department of "Recent Popular Books" as they were briefly noticed, for the purpose of characterization merely, in the issues of the REVIEW during the years 1898–1902. In the concluding pages are listed the titles of the various illustrations that have appeared in the first fifty volumes of the magazine.
